Bathurst Weekend away 13th & 14th April 2013

Meet Windsor, Drive to Jenolan Caves for lunch via Bells Line Road, before heading for Bathurst via Oberon.

Another fabulous PCNSW fun packed weekend with scenic drive, optional sightseeing activities, all complimented with fine food and great accommodation. Registration cost is $70 This covers the Dinner and Bus. Accommodation, Cave Tour and lunch self-funded.

Meeting in Windsor before proceeding along the Bells Line Road to Mount Victoria where we join the Great Western Hwy. From there we will proceed to Jenolan Caves which is a very scenic road designed for the Porsche enthusiast. Once arriving at Jenolan, a Cave Tour will be offered as an optional activity as well as stopping for a fine lunch at Caves House. The Cave Tour and lunch are to be self-funded.

From Jenolan Caves we will proceed to the Rydges Hotel Mount Panorama Bathurst via Oberon which is another great driving experience. For those that enjoy car museums another option activity is to experience the National Motor Racing Museum which is walking distance from the hotel.

At about 7pm Bus transportation will be used to ferry everybody to Restaurant 9inety2wo which is one of Bathurst's renowned restaurants. Both the Bus and Meal are included in the weekend booking cost. Sunday morning we are also offering another optional activity of displaying your much loved Porsche in front of the town hall before making your own way home.
